

Kim Nason has been a K-8 music specialist with the Capistrano Unified School District since 1988, and often conducts the district elementary honor choir. She also serves as Director of Music at Shepherd of the Hills United Methodist Church in Rancho Santa Margarita where she conducts the adult choir and leads the annual summer music camp for kids and youth. Kim received her BM in Music Education from the University of Southern California and her MM in Choral Conducting from Cal State Fullerton.