

Jodi Reed is a conductor, pianist, and vocalist. Jodi began her musical career at a young age studying piano competitively. After being introduced to choral music by her high school choir director, Ted Reid, Jodi has had a lifelong involvement in choral music, conducting university, school, church, and community choirs. Jodi just completed her third year teaching at Monte Vista High School. Under her direction, Monte Vista's choirs consistently receive the highest ranking in Choral Competitions and Festivals throughout the state.

Prior to teaching at Monte Vista High School, Jodi maintained a competitive piano studio for over twenty-five years. She received a Master's degree in Choral Conducting from California State University East Bay and a Bachelor's degree in Piano Performance and Pedagogy from San Jose State University. Jodi's mentors include Buddy James, Jeffrey Sykes, Laurel Brettel, Ellen Wasserman, Pam Hicks, Ted Reid, Bruce Koliha, Susan Bana, and Dottie Nix.

She has had the privilege of working with Charlene Archibeque, Dennis Shrock, Jameson Marvin, and Edward McClary.

Jodi is an active member of American Choral Directors Association, National Collegiate Choral Organization, and Chorus America. Jodi Reed currently resides in Danville with her husband, Jeff, and their six children.
