

Reminders

(I know that you are all responsible young adults, but this is just in case...)

Packing List

- Music
- Black Folder
- Pencils (several)
- Water Bottle(s)
- Cough Drops/Lozenges
- Layers of clothing
 - you won't be able to go to the hotel between rehearsals, so you'll need to bring clothes for cool mornings/evenings and warm afternoons
- Performance Attire: Formal choir dresses and tuxedos (including black dress socks and black dress shoes).
- Open Mind
- Great attitude!

BE ON TIME TO ALL REHEARSALS. This means you should be entering the rehearsal room door at least 10 minutes prior to the beginning of the rehearsal and are seated in your assigned seat 5 minutes prior to the conductor's downbeat.

 First Rehearsal Thursday afternoon**

Please plan to arrive at your rehearsal site at 1:15 pm on Thursday. It will take additional time to get everyone seated. Rehearsal is scheduled to begin at 1:30 pm.

- Please wear your name badge during all rehearsals.
- NO gum, food or drink, other than water, in rehearsals.
- ALL CELL PHONES or and noise makers are to be turned off (not vibrate!) before you enter the rehearsal room. Leave your phones in your luggage or with someone else during the performance.
- AVOID wearing perfumes or other strong scents prior to or while in rehearsals and performance.
- It is expected that each singer will use good judgment in personal behavior throughout the entire honor choir experience. Failure to do so will result in immediate dismissal from the honor choir.
